Christian Senger

- Member of the Board of Management of the Volkswagen Passenger Cars brand with responsibility for 'Digital Car & Services'

Christian Senger (born in 1974) has been the Member of the Board of Management of the Volkswagen Passenger Cars brand with responsibility for 'Digital Car & Services' since March 1, 2019.

The mechanical engineering graduate began his career at BMW AG in Munich in 1997. He held several senior management roles there, for example taking charge of Energy Management from 2008 and heading the BMW i Product Concept unit from 2010.

Senger moved to Continental Automotive GmbH in Regensburg in 2012, where he assumed responsibility for Automotive Systems & Technology.

He joined the Volkswagen brand in 2016 as Head of the E-Mobility Product Line. Senger took charge of setting up this line and was instrumental in driving the brand's electric offensive forward.

He became the Member of the Board of Management of the Volkswagen Passenger Cars brand with responsibility for 'Digital Car & Services' on March 1, 2019, and was also named Head of Digital Car & Services for the Group.

About the Volkswagen brand:

The Volkswagen Passenger Cars brand is present in more than 150 markets throughout the world and produces vehicles at over 50 locations in 14 countries. In 2018, Volkswagen delivered 6,2 million vehicles including bestselling models such as the Golf, Tiguan, Jetta or Passat. Currently, 195,878 people work for Volkswagen across the globe. The brand also has over 10,000 dealerships with 86,000 employees. Volkswagen is forging ahead consistently with the further development of automobile production. E-mobility, smart mobility and the digital transformation of the brand are the key strategic topics for the future.
